

Executive Profile

COURTNEY I. SMITH
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT MARKET MANAGER
PNC BANK

Courtney I. Smith has an impressive background as a community development professional with experience in creating community reinvestment opportunities, leading self-sufficiency programs, generating small business and micro-lending activities, and managing retail and commercial banking activities.

Mr. Smith joined PNC Financial in 2013 and leads the bank's Community Development efforts for the Georgia and Alabama markets. Mr. Smith has served in similar roles at other large, regional banks in the metro Atlanta area.

He is passionate about small business development, neighborhood revitalization and enjoys promoting financial literacy activities. Courtney regularly teaches financial literacy courses throughout the community. He is experienced in designing, implementing and monitoring Individual Development Account (IDA) programs, including Youth, Small Business and First-Time Homebuyers programs.

Actively involved in the community, Mr. Smith currently serves on the Access to Capital for Entrepreneurs (ACE), Board of Directors; the Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership One Home Makes A Difference Advisory Committee; Habitat For Humanity Georgia, Board of Directors; Habitat For Humanity International CDFI Advisory Board; and the United Way of Greater Atlanta's Community Investment Committee. Additionally, he volunteers with numerous community organizations throughout Georgia and Alabama. Mr. Smith is a Life Member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. and serves in the Decatur Alumni Chapter.

Mr. Smith graduated from University of Tennessee in Knoxville, TN, where he received a Bachelor degree in Business Administration. He received a Master degree in City and Regional Planning from the University of Memphis. Courtney and his wife, Angela, are the proud parents of two children.