

International Practice

Our multidisciplinary international practice provides comprehensive counsel to companies operating on a global basis. We have extensive experience helping clients prioritize, structure, document and achieve their global business objectives. We help our clients overcome the challenges posed by cross-border business dealings, including unfamiliar laws, alternative business practices, cultural differences, bureaucratic red tape and foreign language issues.

Our Team

Our international practice includes lawyers who are fluent in many languages and licensed or admitted practitioners in key foreign jurisdictions. Our capabilities are enhanced by our network of relationships with select law firms in jurisdictions around the world, which extends our reach far beyond the U.S. market, providing clients with the full range of qualified legal advice and enabling us to collaborate with trusted foreign counsel appropriate to the project or matter at hand.

Areas of Focus

Our international practice advises on a wide range of issues:

- Antitrust, Competition & Trade Regulation
- Business Restructuring, Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy
- Commercial & Public Finance
- Construction
- Corporate Transactions & Securities
- Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation
- Intellectual Property
- International Trade
- Labor & Employment
- Litigation, Arbitration & Mediation
- Privacy & Cybersecurity
- Product Regulatory Compliance
- Real Estate
- Tax
- Transportation

Our Services

U.S. Clients

We advise on the full range of issues faced by U.S. companies conducting business globally. Our experience and relationships with our network of law firms in other jurisdictions enables us to provide knowledgeable counsel and guide clients through complex international transactions.

International Clients

We advise non-U.S. companies with interests in the United States, helping them and their local counsel navigate and overcome obstacles and challenges.
